U.S. Breaks Relations With Red Bulgaria

Toughest American Action Yet

Washington, Feb. 21—(AP)—The United States broke off relations with Communist Bulgaria today in the toughest American action thus far against any of the Soviet bloc countries.

Climaxing a "long series of intolerable restrictions and indignities" against the U. S. Legation in Sofia, American Minister Donald R. Heath and his entire staff were ordered home.

First Break Since War

It was the first formal American diplomatic break with any country since World War II.

Officials indicated the move reflected a harder diplomatic attitude by President Truman and Secretary of State Acheson toward the "Soviet satellites" with which the U. S. has been waging postwar disputes.

Since the legation was established in September, 1947, the department declared Bulgarian officials and the controlled Bulgarian Press have been "constantly denouncing and insulting the United States." The Sofia government, it said, has carried on an "unprincipled campaign of persecution" against Bulgarian employees of the legation.

The department also renewed charges filed with the United Nations that Bulgaria has flouted its peace treaty obligations and supported the Communist Guerrilla campaign against Greece.

Recall Of Heath Cited

The direct cause of the break was Bulgaria's demand of Jan. 19 that Heath be recalled for "interference" in Bulgarian internal affairs.

The U. S. government responded with a virtual ultimatum saying "that relations would end unless the charges were withdrawn. The break came just a month later with no sign of a formal reply from the Bulgarian government despite repeated prodding by Acheson and Heath.

The first actual response from Sofia came today. This was the indictment of two former legation employees and three other Bulgarians as American spies.

U.S. Peacemakers Hit New Impasse In Phone Dispute

Washington, Feb. 21—(AP)—Government peacemakers struck a new impasse today in their efforts to head off a nationwide telephone strike set for Friday.

Western Electric company rejected a government bid to talk peace with its workers in Washington, and the union promptly called off any new bargaining in New York.

The next step presumably was being worked out tonight at the White House. Cyrus C. Federal, mediation chief, announced the action of western electric, the Bell telephone system's manufacturing and installation subsidiary. He said he would have to report the new development to the White House.

A. T. Jones, vice president of the CIO—Communication Workers of America, said in a statement that the union will not go back to New York conferences which have been going on for weeks with no results.

"We stand ready to bargain at any time here in Washington between now and 6 a.m. Friday," he said. "Failing to reach agreement by that time, we strike."

Southern Demos Set For Showdown Battle Over FEPC

Washington, Feb. 21—(AP)—Southern Democrats in the House marshaled their forces today for a showdown battle against the No. 1 item in President Truman's civil rights program—the Fair Employment Practices Commission.

After a caucus, the Dixie leaders announced that 108 representatives have pledged to use "every honorable means and parliamentary procedure" to defeat the measure technically slated for House consideration tomorrow.

The southerners said they are prepared to hold out for 36 hours, if necessary, to prevent the legislation from being brought up for action. Under House rules members cannot filibuster, but there are plenty of other delaying devices.

The bill would set up a federal commission to combat discrimination in hiring because of race or color.

Operators, PMW Still Deadlocked In Talks

BULLETIN

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 22—(Wednesday)—Some 10,000 Progressive Mine Workers struck in Illinois early today, cutting coal production from this state's rich bituminous veins to a trickle.

The Progressives joined on strike the rival United Mine Workers union whose 19,000 Illinois members have been idle more than two weeks.

Progressives mine 20 to 25 percent of Illinois' coal. Their walkout leaves only 5,500 UMW members working. These are employed at small shafts which have come to terms with UMW chief John L. Lewis.

Coal Strike Hits Industry Anew; Pickets On Move

Pittsburgh, Feb. 21—(AP)—The coal strike rained new hammer blows on American industry today while roving pickets raided non-union mines in their drive to cut down production still more.

Lay-offs in coal-using industries mounted to 55,500.

An additional 23,000 workers will be furloughed tomorrow by one steel company alone if the "no contract no work" walkout continues.

There is no let up in diggers' determination to hold out for a contract despite stop-strike orders from John L. Lewis and a federal court.

The 372,000 soft coal strikers brushed off a contempt of court citation as "just another order."

A miner at Bobtown in southwestern Pennsylvania who refused use of his name declared:

"We'll go back to work under two conditions.

"1. If we get a contract.

"2. If the government seizes the mines."

He and two fellow diggers standing by agreed that Washington court work orders and the contempt citation will have no effect in getting striking miners back at work.

Britain's Orators Return From Tours To Make Last Plea

London, Feb. 21—(AP)—Britain's political orators returned from the hustings to their home stamping grounds tonight to make 11th-hour pleas for victory in Thursday's general election.

For most of them, it was their next-to-the last big speech-making fling before the nation's 34,000,000 voters decide the fate of the Socialist labor government.

Candidates from more than 30 political parties of all hues and shades of opinion will make their final bids to the home folks tomorrow for election to the 625-member House of Commons.

The party that comes through with a majority in the country's ruling law-making body will emerge as masters of Britain.

The race essentially is between the ruling labor party—which introduced Socialism into Britain when it was swept into power in 1945—and the conservative opposition.

Both Prime Minister Attlee and conservative leader Winston Churchill spoke today in their own ballrooms.

As the showdown approached, rival conservative and labor leaders again made victory claims.

NAMED PRESIDENT

Chicago, Feb. 21—(AP)—Paul D. Gilbert, South Bend, Ind., was named president of the National Association of Retail Clothiers and Furnishers today.

U. S. Starts Suit To Break Shubert Theatrical Empire

New York, Feb. 21—(AP)—The federal government brought a civil anti-trust suit today to break up the fabulous theatrical empire of the "Shuberts"—the boys from Syracuse, N. Y., who built a coast-to-coast chain once valued at $400,000,000.

The justice department said the Shuberts, through their control of theaters and stage productions, have strangled the legitimate theater business throughout the country.

Filed in federal court here, the complaint names Lee Shubert, his brother Jacob J. Shubert; their associate, Marcus Heiman; and three corporations said to be controlled by them—United Booking Office, Inc.; Select Theaters Corp.; and L. A. B. Amusement Corp.

In Washington, Attorney General J. Howard McGrath said the suit was brought "to remove the fetters imposed on this business and to make it possible for any person to enter any branch of the business."

is. But their output is less than five per cent of the state's output.

Despite intervention by Illinois Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, the Progressives and representatives of the Illinois Coal Producers Association broke off their talks at 11:15 o'clock last night.

This was just 45 minutes before the union's strike deadline. The talks had been going on all day in Springfield's Abraham Lincoln hotel.

Union and operator representatives remained deadlocked tonight just two hours before the midnight strike deadline set by Illinois' Progressive Mine Workers union.

Governor Stevenson stepped into the dispute earlier in the day but without immediate result.

After an all day session failed to bring any agreement, the operators and union officials resumed their talks at 7 p.m. (CST) tonight. They were still in session at 10 p.m. (CST).

The union is seeking higher wages, shorter hours and increased royalty payments.

Stevenson appealed to union leaders to keep the 10,000 progressives on the job in Illinois. He also offered to make a direct appeal to the miners themselves not to strike.

There was no immediate action on his last minute appeal.

A union committee, after conferring with Stevenson at the executive mansion, said it would report his plea to the PMW scale committee, which is bargaining with the operators.

Stevenson told the committee that schools and state institutions are in urgent need of PMW mined coal. The committee included George Baima, PMW vice president; Louis Karlovic, secretary-treasurer; and Lino Florini, scale committee chairman.

If the progressives strike, it will boost the number of idle miners in the state to 29,000 and mean a virtual shutdown of Illinois coal production.

The only UMW members still working are 5,500 at small shafts, which have signed five day agreements. Their output is less than five percent of the state's normal production.

States Pittsburgh Progressive Party In Hands Of Reds

Washington, Feb. 21—(AP)—A government undercover agent in the Communist party testified today that Reds control the Progressive party in Pittsburgh.

Matthew Cvetic, 41-year-old Pittsburgh insurance salesman identified scores of people as communists and named numerous organizations he said the communists control—like the American Slav Congress.

Cvetic was giving the House un-American activities committee chapter 1 of how he joined the Communist party in 1943, worked his way up in it, and all the time filed secret reports to the FBI. He said he spent two years getting into the party and seven as an active member.

Tomorrow, he told reporters, there will be more details about the Progressive party—the third party created in 1948 by former Vice President Henry A. Wallace.

Then, he said, he will go into communist activities in the United Electrical Workers union and the steel and coal industry and wind up with the story of Red plans for violent overthrow of the United States government.

Jobless Total Hits New Postwar High Of 4.5 Million

Washington, Feb. 21—(AP)—About seven per cent of the civilian work force was unemployed last month when the jobless total hit a postwar high of 4,500,000, the labor department reported today.

This compared with the four and a half per cent figure for January, 1949 when the number of idle workers was 1,000,000 less.

The department said industrial and commercial employment dropped 1,500,000 between mid-December and mid-January to a total of 42,221,000—about 1,200,000 below the same period last year. But it said there were signs the downturn was leveling off.

1. Manufacturing jobs declined 61,000 to a 14,000,000 total, as compared with the 400,000 drop recorded in the same period last year.

2. Trade establishments showed a job decrease of 835,000—about the same as last year, with the total employment in these fields set at 3,300,000.

3. The construction industry reported a continuing high level of employment with a total of almost 2,000,000 workers on winter-time jobs. There was a drop of about 100,000 workers in January—only half the decrease recorded last year.

Fire Razes Two Buildings Of Ferris Institute; 3 Hurt

Big Rapids, Mich., Feb. 21—(AP)—Fire raged through Ferris Institute, a state trade and business college, destroying the commerce and pharmacy buildings tonight. Only three of the school's 1,200 students were injured.

The alumni building, housing administration offices and the gymnasium, also was afire. Firemen battling against a northeast wind and falling snow still hoped to save a fourth structure, the trade and industry department.

Six persons, including three students, suffered burns fighting the flames. They were not identified immediately.

Equipment in the pharmacy building was said to be among the finest in the country. It was all lost. However, there was no general estimate of damage.

The fire started in one of the classrooms or offices on the third floor of the commerce building, built more than 50 years ago. Cause of the blaze was not known.

When the flames broke out, all regular classes had been dismissed for the day, but there was a University of Michigan extension course in session. Its students were evacuated before the fire spread to the ground floor.

Most of the students' dormitories are some distance from the fire. Only some old army barracks used to house men students were threatened, and that area was considered out of danger.

The fire spread rapidly through the old commerce building and the more recently constructed pharmacy division.

Ferris institute was founded in the mid-1880's by the late Gov. Woodbridge N. Ferris. It became well known as a pharmacological and trade school.

The Michigan state legislature voted recently to make the school a state-supported institution.

Big Rapids is about 70 miles north of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Showdown In Coal Dispute Coming Soon

Vogeler Gets 15 Years In Prison In Hungary

Budapest, Hungary, Feb. 21—(AP)—A Hungarian People's court sentenced Robert A. Vogeler of New York today to 15 years in prison and his British business associate, Edgar Sanders, to 13 years on charges of sabotage and spying for the west.

Appeals are to be filed soon.

Two of five Hungarian co-defendants were sentenced to death. The others got lesser prison terms. The verdicts were passed after a three day trial in which all calmly confessed.

(In Washington the United States denounced the trial as "devoted to justice, inadequate as to evidence and replete with falsehoods.")

Bulgaria Arrests Five On Charges Of Spying For US

Sofia, Bulgaria, Feb. 21—(AP)—The Communist Press announced the indictment of five Bulgarians on charges of spying for the United States and termed the American legation here a spy nest a few hours before the United States broke diplomatic relations with Bulgaria today.

One of the Bulgarians, Michael Shippok, 39, was quoted as saying he hid in the legation attic for several months before his arrest.

Washington's decision to end relations broke a 32-day impasse between the two countries. It was touched off Jan. 19 when Bulgaria declared U.S. Minister Donald R. Heath persona non grata (unwanted) and demanded his recall.

The United States threatened at that time to break off diplomatic relations unless the demand was withdrawn.

Heath's name had been mentioned repeatedly in the trial of Traicho Kostov, former vice premier who was executed in December for treason.

Prosecution witnesses declared Heath was implicated in plotting against the security of the Communist state.

The five Bulgarians were charged with transmitting political, economic and military information to the American intelligence service.

Catholic Priest Brutally Slain In South Texas Town

Gregory, Tex., Feb. 21—(AP)—The Roman Catholic priest of this quiet, south Texas town, was brutally slain early today.

Deputy sheriffs found the blood-soaked body of the Rev. Leonard Potrykus, 42, in his living quarters in the Immaculate Conception Catholic church at 4:30 a.m.

An 18-year-old youth, three-time inmate of a Texas reform school, was under guard at an Arkansas Pass hospital. Shortly after the slaying, he wrecked the priest's automobile, about 10 miles from Gregory.

The youth was picked up unconscious at 1:30 a.m. and an investigation was begun immediately. Fearing foul play, officers spent more than two hours searching roadside ditches between Gregory and Arkansas Pass, hunting the priest.

The trail ended when they burst into Father Potrykus' quarters and found his body on the floor of a blood-spattered bedroom.

Sheriff Frank Hunt of San Patricio county said he believed robbery was the motive. He added that the 18-year-old suspect had the priest's bloodstained wrist watch, cigarette lighter, cigarette case and $8 in cash when he was found unconscious in the car.

Hunt said a woman's brother-in-law, Harman, charged would be filed against the youth.

AS CLOTHES IGNITE

Havana, Ill., Feb. 21—(AP)—An 84-year-old woman was found burned to death today in the back yard of her farm home near Havana.

Coroner Richard Hurley said Mrs. Matilda Budke ran from the house after flames apparently ignited her clothes while she was cooking in the kitchen. A fry pan was found on the back porch.

The accident was discovered by the woman's brother-in-law, Harman, who was asleep at the time in an upstairs room.

STREATOR BUSINESS FIRMS WILL GET NO RATING

Miners Stiffen Their Stand

Washington, Feb. 21—(AP). The fast-spreading chill of fuel famine brought a showdown in the coal dispute nearer today as striking miners stiffened their stand in the face of a contempt of court threat.

These were the developments:

1. John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers maintained chilly silence on last night's federal court contempt citation, with no sign of any new moves to get the miners back to work as the court has ordered.

2. Lewis and the coal operators argued their case truthfully through two long sessions of court-ordered bargaining and after both of them operator spokesman George H. Love said he saw no sign of progress.

3. Layoffs in affected industries, outside the mines themselves, amounted to 55,500 with a faster spread of joblessness an immediate threat.

4. Federal mediation chief Cyrus S. Ching made a 35-minute report to Dr. John R. Steelman, presidential labor aide, but said his account boiled down to the same story of "no progress" that Ching already had given out last night.

5. The 372,000 striking soft coal miners, already idle for five weeks, stayed stubbornly out of the pits with occasional acid comments about the difficulty of jailing that many men and about how little coal a contempt order will dig up.

6. Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said a group which called on him reported "organized gangs" are operating in Ohio to keep miners from working. He said it seemed like "a clear case of contempt" and referred his call to the justice department. There were clashes with pickets in Pennsylvania and West Virginia too.

7. Talk of legislation for seizure of the mines, often batted down by the White House, rose again above the whisper stage. But Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross referred inquiries to President Truman's statements that he does not have nor want seizure powers.

At the close of this morning's contract talks in a hotel here, Lewis left the conference room smiling. But he shook his head when reporters asked him if there was "any cheery word."

An afternoon session was arranged for 2 p.m. (CST).

While the negotiators talked, a delegation from Birmingham, N. Y., added a new push to the pressure on the White House to take still more active measures to get coal flowing.

Arthur J. Bale, an employee of the Endicott-Johnson Shoe Corp. and John Donnelly, on behalf of Birmingham, Johnson City and Endicott, brought to Washington a 17,000-signature petition for a presidential order to the coal miners to resume digging.

Crust—1½ cups of all purpose flour; 1 cup of lard; 3/4 teaspoon of salt; and 3/4 of a cup of cold milk.

Filling—three cups frozen cherries; one cup granulated sugar; 4 teaspoon almond extract; five tablespoons pastry flour; one teaspoon salt; one teaspoon butter; and 1 cup of Cherry juice.

Says Present Pact Between GM, UAW Best In History

Chicago, Feb. 21—(AP)—Cadillac's general manager today termed the current General Motors-United Auto Workers contract "the most satisfactory" labor agreement in the giant motor concern's history.

J. R. Gordon, vice president of General Motors corporation and general manager of GM's Cadillac division, Detroit, said the contract had produced high morale, excellent employer-employee relations and a productivity rate unequalled by any other company in the nation.

Gordon discussed activities of the Cadillac division at a news conference in connection with the Chicago automobile show.

The contract with the big CIO union runs until May. It contains a cost of living factor which keeps wage benefits adjusted to fluctuations in living expenses.

Gordon expressed a hope that the UAW strike against Chrysler corporation would not last too long. He said a prolonged walkout would be bad for Chrysler, for the automobile industry and the country.

NEW ORIENTAL MYSTERY: THE RUSSIAN-CHINESE PACT

On its face the new pact between Russia and Red China looks like a diplomatic victory for Mao Tze-tung, Chinese Communist leader. But we'd better wait and see. This will probably turn out to be one of those formidable Russian Arctic icebergs—nine-tenths beneath the surface.

The part of the treaty the world is being told about will make good reading back in China. Mao is granted numerous important concessions in Manchuria. He's to get back two key ports, the Changchun railway, and property acquired by Soviet economic units from Japanese owners.

Then Moscow is granting Red China $300,000,000 in credits. It's expected they'll be used largely to buy Russian railroad and mining equipment. Repayment is to be made over a 10-year period in products like tea and gold.

Furthermore, the two nations have signed a 30-year alliance of friendship and assistance. Both parties pledge to come to each other's aid in event of aggression by Japan or any other power associated with that country directly or indirectly.

The outstanding fact about these agreements is that nowhere is it really disclosed what the Chinese will pay in turn for Moscow's concessions. Many diplomatic experts believe the treaty must contain secret clauses covering this price, and probably additional vital issues.

A hard bargainer like the Soviet Union doesn't hand over so much, even in theory, without getting something back. Russia has yielded on Port Arthur and Dairen, the two Manchurian ports, despite the fact that at Yalta in 1945 the Big Three powers recognized Moscow's "pre-eminent" interests in those areas. There were other examples of this apparent generosity.

What's it all about? The military alliance can't mean enough to Moscow to explain it. Nor can Chinese acceptance of the independence of the Mongolian People's Republic, which surely will prove in practice to mean Soviet domination of the region.

To learn the real story of this treaty the world must watch carefully the actual workings of Chinese-Russian relations from here on. Sooner or later expert observers will pick up clues to the price Mao has paid.

We may find, too, that Moscow hasn't given as much as we think. The Manchurian concessions won't take effect before 1952 unless the Allies sign a peace treaty with Japan before that date. And there's slim chance of that. Will Russia honor 1950 promises in 1952? The risk that it won't is certainly considerable.

Two years hence Mao may have suffered the sad disillusionments of others who have experienced Life with Father Stalin.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Rheumatic Fever Often Does Lasting Damage To Heart

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Rheumatic fever has been called childhood's greatest enemy. It also attacks grownups and is one of the most important causes of heart disease in later life as well as in childhood.

In its typical form it produces swelling, pain and redness of the joints, usually skipping from one to another. The joints recover entirely without permanent harm, but permanent damage to the heart is its most serious effect.

Lack of knowledge of the cause of rheumatic fever certainly holds back efforts at prevention and treatment. Rheumatic fever is somewhat more common among the poor than among the economically well to do. It is more frequent under damp and other undesirable living conditions than under good conditions.

Although better economic circumstances for all probably would cut down somewhat on the number of cases, this alone is quite certainly not the answer. At present the most promising line of investigation on prevention is the use of the sulfa drugs or antibiotics.

Treatment of rheumatic fever is also not yet wholly satisfactory. Complete rest in bed is necessary, as is good nursing, such as would be used for any acute infection or illness.

Drugs of the salicylate family, such as aspirin by mouth and oil of wintergreen externally, have been used for many years and still are used in this disease. The principal aim of whatever treatment is employed is to prevent heart damage or at least keep it to a minimum and also to speed recovery from the acute attack.

Heart Needs Rest
After the attack of acute rheumatic fever has gone, a long period of convalescence is desirable. This is important not only to try to build up some kind of resistance to future attacks, but also because it helps the heart to recover to the greatest possible degree.

Careful tests of the heart must be made to find out how badly it has been damaged and just how much further care is necessary. Many people recover from an attack of rheumatic fever with hearts which are not seriously affected, but on the other hand some get heart trouble from attacks which have been so mild that they passed unnoticed at the time.

Protein Fills in Lenten Menus

LENTEN BOON—Casserole cheese sandwiches are a souffle-like high protein main dish for Lenten menus.

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer
Tomorrow is Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent. Look to cheese and other dairy foods for high-quality protein to replace that of meat in your Lenten menus. Cheese sandwiches, casseroles, soups, and dips provide main dish nutrition for all the family.

Here's a brand new idea. Comes out puffy and brown like a souffle: Casserole Sandwiches (Serves 6)

One 7-ounce can tuna fish, 3 tablespoons mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 12 slices bread, 1 cup grated cheddar cheese, 3 eggs, 3 cups milk, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon celery salt.

Mix together tuna fish, mayonnaise and minced onion. Spread on six slices of bread, cover with remaining slices and fit into six-inch individual casseroles. Top with grated cheese. Beat eggs until frothy, stir in milk, Worcestershire sauce and celery salt.

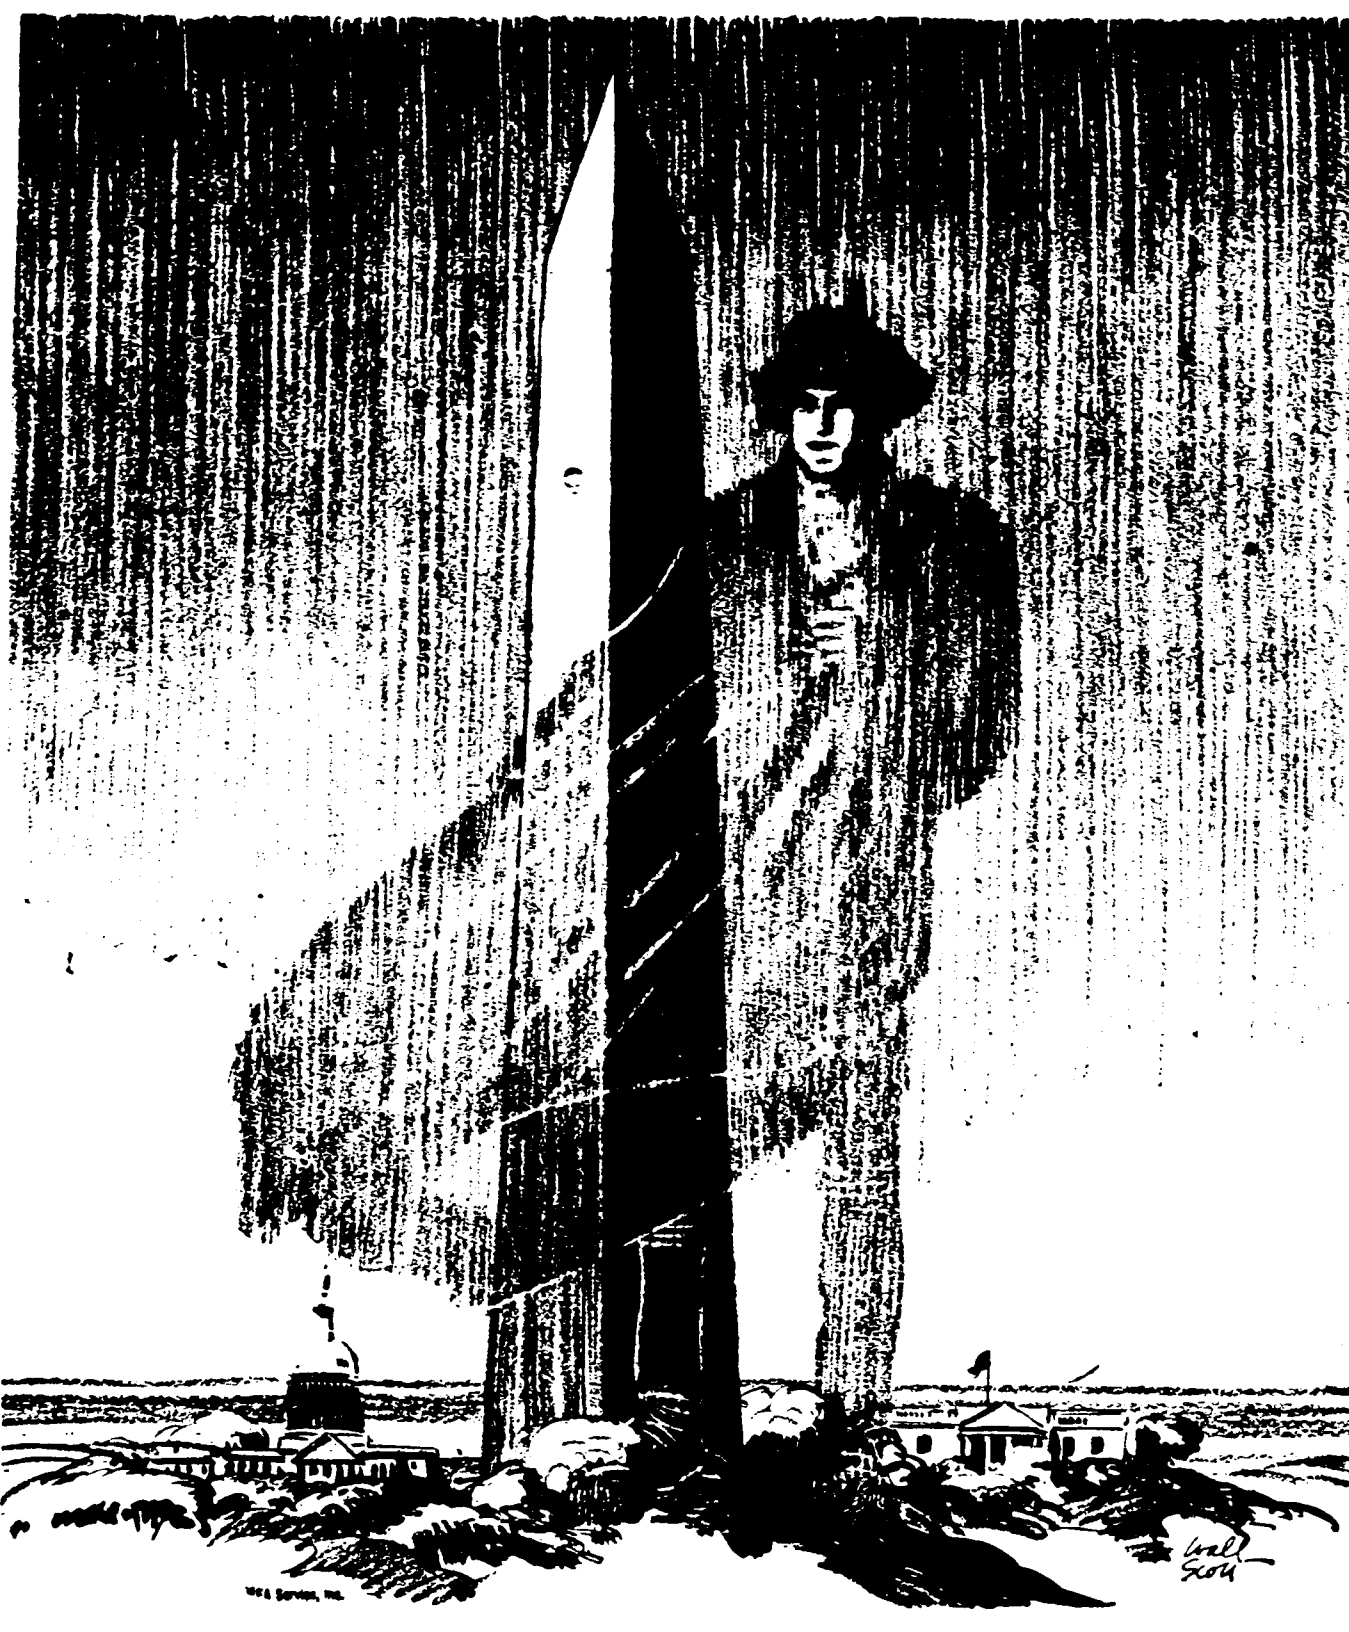

Pour over sandwiches. Let stand for thirty minutes. Bake in moderate oven 350 degrees F. for about 25 to 30 minutes or until puffy and golden brown. Garnish with green peas and mushrooms. Serve very hot.

What's The U. S. To You?

The Morgan County League of Women Voters through its Voters Service committee, of which Mrs. John Agger is chairman, has prepared a series of articles to promote political responsibility and stimulate interest in voting. The series is in the form of questions and answers. Another article will be published soon.

What requirements are necessary for me to become a voter?
1. Citizenship—In the United States.
2. Age—21 years.
3. Registration—Permanent.
4. Residence—1 year in Illinois, 90 days in Morgan County, 30 days in Precinct.

Every person born in the United States is a citizen, whether or not his parents are citizens or are eligible for citizenship. A person born of parents who are citizens of the United States is also a citizen, regardless of his place of birth. Women who marry aliens retain their citizenship. If an alien chooses to become a citizen of the United States he may do so by being naturalized.

Any citizen who is 21 or on election day will be 21 years of age meets the requirements.

Once registered the voter need never register again unless:
(1) he changes his place of residence
(2) Changes his name
(3) fails to vote for four years.

This system of Permanent Registration protects each individual's franchise from being usurped by some one else. It prevents such election irregularities as a person voting in the name of a deceased individual.

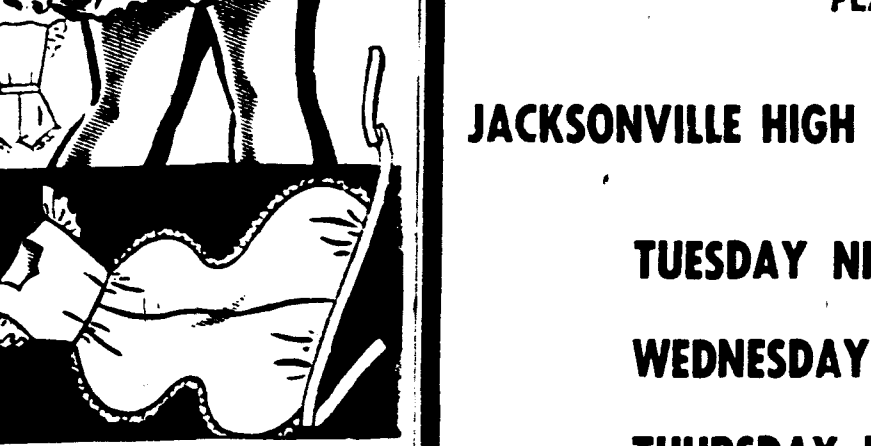

Permanent Registration is an important safeguard to the ballot box which is essential to good government.

In Illinois a citizen may vote who is a member of the armed forces or who has been honorably discharged from the armed forces within 60 days of the election if he appears in person at his own precinct on election day and proves that he is qualified to register. Any one else not registered must do so by March 15 to be eligible to vote in the April 11 Primary.

Is War Between Communism And Democracy Inevitable

By Dewitt MacKenzie
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

America's decision to go ahead with development of the dread hydrogen bomb has most of the civilized world scared stiff.

This isn't to say that the super bomb can "destroy civilization." That is an overworked and far-fetched expression. However, science tells us that it is possible to construct bombs with which a nation might be rendered totally incapable either of defense or aggression.

President Truman's order to construct the hydrogen bomb has been followed by a renewal of pleas from many quarters of Europe for international control of atomic energy. The state department has been reviewing American policy on international controls and this survey reportedly has included the possibility of a fresh approach to Russia.

Meantime the British foreign office pinned the thing down in reply to a request by British Quakers that Prime Minister Attlee try to arrange a personal conference with Stalin, Truman and other western government heads in an attempt to reach an international agreement. The foreign office replied on behalf of Attlee:

"It would be presumptuous to suppose that personal contact at even the highest level would do anything but raise unduly the hopes for peace which have been so often and so cruelly disappointed in the past."

The reply added that, judging by their recent conduct, the Russians "are dominated by the Marxist theory of an inevitable clash between the two systems into which the world is divided."

Is that a true bill? Is the quest of peace hopeless? Is war inevitable? From our viewpoint a major shooting war between the -isms isn't likely in the near future. However, that doesn't take care of the distant future.

Will there come a time when communism and democracy must line up on the battlefields of an armed conflict?

Let's look at the thing squarely. The world is divided into two camps. Now the bulk of the strength in all categories—including economic and industrial power—at present lies with the western nations. There has been no indication that they have any intention of declaring a shooting war against the communist bloc headed by Russia. And the Soviet Union would look twice before launching a shooting war with the balance of power against her.

But there are many close observers who feel that war will be highly probable if the two blocs become equalized in military strength. The leaders of the opposing forces would of course be Russia and America.

It was the maiden voyage of the $7,500,000 floating mansion. Of a new type construction, she was called the world's first truly unsinkable ship. Some 700 passengers survived, thanks largely to wireless distress signals flashed to nearby ships. The world knew little of the great tragedy while it was going on. It was 24 hours afterward before detailed news began reaching New York.

Red Cross Plans To Launch Annual Campaign March 1

The meeting of the directors of the Morgan County Red Cross chapter was held Monday night in the chapter office, with the following directors present: R. J. Kaufmann, chairman who presided; Vice, Mrs. John T. Taylor; Mrs. Beattie Spaulding; Charlotte Sieber; Mrs. Harrison King; Mrs. William Max Thompson; Mrs. James L. Bunch; Cecil Wegehoff; Literberry; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Evans; Waverly; Frances Frisch; Anne Bellati; Alma Mackness, executive secretary, and J. Emmett Barton, chairman, 1950 fund campaign.

Mrs. Bunch made a report for the volunteer services committee, telling about the attractive Valentine hospital favors and decorations that were delivered to Oaklawn Sanatorium, the Jacksonville state hospital, Christian Home for the Aged and the Morgan county farm.

Knitting Completed
Miss Bellati reported about 63 pairs of knitted socks completed and sent to the station hospital at Ft. Sheridan.

Mrs. Taylor, a member of the Junior Red Cross committee, told about the interest being shown in the city and county schools in the Junior Red Cross International school art program, and the school correspondence activity. She also told about the Junior Red Cross membership in various schools in Jacksonville and Morgan county making hospital decorations and favors for Valentine's Day and reported on thank-you letters being received from schools overseas in acknowledgment of Junior Red Cross gift boxes sent from this chapter.

In the absence of Howard Reynolds, first aid chairman, Miss Mackness told about the first aid classes now in session at the South Jacksonville school, MacMurray college and Jacksonville high school.

Reports on Home Service
Miss Mackness made her report of home service activities during the month, and that service men and their families, and veterans and their dependents had received various kinds of help in securing government benefits due them, and giving health and welfare reports and social histories concerning men in the Armed Forces at the request of military authorities or relatives. Emergency relief was made where there was a real need. The one civilian case was a fire disaster, and received emergency relief and rehabilitation expenses.

In the absence of Miss Agnes Garlich, home nursing chairman, Miss Mackness told about nine students at MacMurray college who completed the standard home nursing course under the direction of Mrs. Beattie Oaks, an instructor for the local chapter, and the appointment of Mrs. Rachel Ricks, public health nurse, as an instructor in home nursing. She is now conducting the standard course for senior girls at the Waverly high school. Two other classes are in the process of being organized.

Mr. Barton made a detailed report about the development of the fund campaign. He stated all division chairmen had been appointed except two, which he hopes to be able to announce soon.

Garage Destroyed By Fire; Cemetery Residence Saved

A one-car garage at Diamond Grove cemetery was destroyed by fire early Tuesday morning while the fire department won a successful battle to save the custodian's residence only 15 feet south of the doomed garage. A bolt of lightning struck the garage at 6 o'clock, after which it quickly burst into flames.

Edward Cooper, cemetery custodian, said he saw a bright flash of light and heard a loud report. Within a few seconds the garage was burning. The entire garage was enveloped by flames when the pumper and crew pulled up in the cemetery. Terrific heat on the south side of the garage threatened to ignite the two story residence.

Water from a 100 gallon tank on the truck was turned on the north side of the house, while other firemen worked with handpumps. The tank was refilled twice before the fire was extinguished.

Heat blistered the entire north side of the residence, which had been painted not many months ago but it did not catch fire. There was no car in the garage at the time of the blaze.

A larger garage in which trucks and other cemetery equipment are stored is located in another section of the cemetery. The loss was covered by insurance.

Submit Report On Federal Aid For Rural Roads

Washington, Feb. 21.—The Bureau of public roads says it is "possible under existing federal legislation" to extend government aid to some 100,000 miles of heavily traveled rural roads.

This, the bureau said in a report to a senate public works subcommittee, would permit federal aid to "practically all of the local roads carrying 100 or more vehicles daily and raise to about 700,000 the total mileage which the government helps maintain."

The committee had asked for the report to guide it in a study of bills proposing that federal aid for secondary roads be made a regular budget item.

The bureau made no recommendations along this line but it suggested that local governments might have more money to spend on roads if they corrected "evident weaknesses" in road administration and quit "logrolling."

The board estimated that needed repairs to locally kept county, township and other rural roads would cost approximately $7,200,000,000 over a period of years.

It also found that 40 percent of all local roads don't carry any more than 10 vehicles a day, and that many of the roads are "wholly non-essential." It recommended abandonment of 400,000 miles of such roads. Illinois, the report said, has 87,245 miles of local rural highways that get no federal aid.

Junior C. Of C. Urges Spring Cleanup Day

A spring cleanup day for Jacksonville, to include pavements, sidewalks and alleys in the business district, was proposed by a delegation of Junior Chamber of Commerce members during a meeting of the city council Monday night. The JavCee pledged energetic assistance to the job, in which they said they hoped other organizations would join.

Mavor Hoagland said the city welcomed help along these lines. He and other members of the council virtually told the JavCees to go to it in their movement to spruce up the city for the spring season.

John Bomke first addressed the council in the interest of a cleanup day. He was followed by Willard Ranson, both of whom urged a thorough cleaning of the business district. The speakers said the long-paving project has not quite been completed, and that when the Sangamo Construction Company puts the finishing touches to the job the streets should be washed with the washing operations.

New Street Signs Needed
Thanking the JavCee members for their offer of assistance, Mavor Hoagland discussed several improvements in streets to which the city looks forward when funds are available. One of these is the erection of new street signs throughout the city, which he said would cost about $4,000. Signs would be needed for at least 390 intersections.

The mavor also discussed the importance of cooperation from house holders and business men in keeping the city clean. He scorned the practice of a few business men who, he said, make a practice of sweeping litter from their establishments out to the curbs and into the streets. He also pointed out the untidy habit of citizens who carry tree limbs, leaves and grass from private premises and dump them in the streets.

"The street department has in some instances found peach trees on the boulevards," Mavor Hoagland said. He urged citizens to help keep streets and alleys free of refuse. A resolution ordering the transfer of $500 from the general fund to two special accounts was adopted on a motion by Alderman Hanline, seconded by Alderman Kelly. The ordinance, leasing manure land north of the town block between Diamond and Gladstone streets, Ray E. Bourn for the price of one year, was given second reading and passed on motion of Alderman Chumley, seconded by Alderman Baker.

VISIT IN MISSOURI
Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Radtke and family of Franklin and nephew, Bertie Berry of Montana, spent the week end visiting with relatives in Missouri.

It's a BUICK — it's a RIVIERA — AND IT'S SEDAN PRICED!

No there's no mistake.

This is the Riviera, that super-smart new body type introduced last year by Buick that combines the swift racy look of a convertible with steel-top permanence.

And it's Riviera on a SUPER chassis—which means not only all the good solid Buick features like soft coil springs, torque-tube drive, and Dynaflo Drive* as optional equipment, but the lift and life of Buick's very newest power plant, the F-263.

But the climax is spelled out on the price tags.

*Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on Super and Special models.

For this stellar beauty actually lists at a dollar less than our regular SUPER 4-door Sedan with the same equipment.

For sedan prices you can step out in the very last word in automotive styling.

For sedan prices you can have long, sleek, convertible lines—plus a stout steel top and all-weather snugness.

You'll drive a car that opens wide for its full length, without even a door-post to interfere—a car that gives a horizon-sweeping view to the rear through Buick-developed wrap-around rear windows.

Naturally, these beauties are going to move fast. Production is not without its limits.

So if you want to be doubly smart—smart in your going and smart in your buying—see your Buick dealer quick—to get an order signed.

Plan Improvements On Gravel Road Near Glasgow

Glasgow — A group of residents from Glasgow and the area just north of town met with the Scott county commissioners at their regular meeting in the court house in Winchester Monday morning.

The delegation's purpose was to bring to the attention of the board the dire need of an improved and gravelled road leading north from Glasgow. This thoroughfare is a dirt road, and has been in a very impassable condition at this time of the year and during rainy seasons.

This road is a direct route from Glasgow into Winchester.

The delegation received a promise that this road would be improved as soon as possible, however no definite action was reported taken on the matter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boes, who have residing on the "Mound farm," west of Glasgow, have moved to a farm, northeast of Alsey, with Mr. and Mrs. John Moser of Hull moving here to occupy the vacated Mound farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kirkley and family, tenants of the Dr. J. L. Roberts dairy farm, just west of Glasgow, the past year, have moved to a farm east of Florence, near the Illinois river, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin

Carriger and family, residing between here and Alsey, are to be the new tenants on the Roberts' farm here.

The Glasgow Christian Sunday school starting Sunday, Feb. 26, will present a special number each Sunday during the regular Sunday school hour. The special number for Sunday morning, Feb. 26, will be a vocal duet by Mrs. J. Smith and Mrs.

Clarence Adams. Sunday school is at 9:30 o'clock.

Ashland Defeats ISD Tigers 46-40; Ceci Collects 21 Points

Lakers Whip Globetrotters In Exhibition Game

Chicago, Feb. 21.—(AP)—George Mikan popped in 36 points to lead the Minneapolis Lakers over the exhibition basketball game tonight before 21,000 fans, it was one of the greatest crowds ever to see a sport in Chicago Stadium.

Mikan collected 19 of his total points in the first half as the Lakers rolled into a 40-29 lead at intermission. After Minneapolis broke a 9-9 tie at the outset, the famed Globetrotters never came near to catching up.

Sweetwater Clifton and Babe Freeman were assigned to guard Mikan and each stayed with him until collecting four fouls apiece. Bill Brown then took the assignment and was charged with three.

Clifton fouled out of the game in the first two minutes of the third period.

The Chicago Stars and Baltimore bullets met in a National Basketball association second game.

Young Notre Dame Athlete Critically Hurt In Tumbling

South Bend, Ind., Feb. 21.—(AP)—Ray Espenan, 24, a reserve end on the Notre Dame football team for the last three seasons, was in critical condition today from injuries suffered in demonstrating gymnastics.

Espean, who also was a broad jumper on the Irish Track team, suffered a dislocated vertebra in his neck while demonstrating a tumbling act to students at South Bend Central High school yesterday. He was removed to St. Joseph's and early today attending physicians said his condition remained critical. He remained conscious, they added.

Espean, a senior from New Orleans, who won football letters the last three years, was directing a gymnasium class as a practice teacher.

Espean's brother, Pierre, 21, also a senior at the university, said "Ray knew what had happened to him and wouldn't let himself be moved until the ambulance arrived. He was conscious all the while."

Pierre, who was in the operating room with his brother, added, "Ray and I are in our last semester and we are going to graduate together." The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Espenan, were notified and left for South Bend last night. Both boys attended Holy Cross High school in New Orleans before entering Notre Dame.

Bill To Increase Home-Building Is Okayed By Group

Washington, Feb. 21.—(AP)—An administration bill to spur home-building for "middle income" families was approved today by the house banking committee, 11 to 4. It would set up a $20,000,000 government corporation to finance construction of such homes by co-operatives and other non-profit groups.

The vote was an initial victory for President Truman's new housing program, but the legislation may have rough sailing in the House and Senate.

Rep. Rains (D-Ala.), a member of the banking committee, said the measure embodies "a disparity of interest rates" by providing loans for co-op housing at 3 per cent while veterans now pay 4 per cent for such loans and the FHA insured housing loans are at 4 1/2 per cent.

The legislation would create "a national mortgage corporation for housing co-operatives."

The government would subscribe $100,000,000 of the capital stock. The corporation then would be authorized to sell publicly debentures amounting to $300,000,000 after July 1, 1950 and the president would increase this amount by $1,700,000,000 after July 1, 1951. The government would guarantee the debentures.

SON HELD, ANOTHER SOUGHT IN FATHER'S DISAPPEARANCE

Pontiac, Mich., Feb. 21.—(AP)—One son was held and another sought today in the three-year-old disappearance of their father, Stanley James.

Sheriff Clare L. Hubbell quoted a Washington, D.C., daughter of the missing man as accusing one of the brothers of slaying the father and burying his body in a cowshed. Hubbell said Hugh E. James, 18, was arrested today as a material witness and that Carson James, 23, was being sought for questioning.

The sheriff said a woman identifying herself as Mrs. Muriel Hocksmith, 26, of (Minton St.) Washington, D.C., telephoned Clawson, Mich., police Sunday implicating one of the brothers in the disappearance.

The elder James disappeared on Thanksgiving, 1947.

Engineers recommended that automobile headlamps be tested at least twice a year, to overcome faulty adjustment.

BLUFFS DROPS FINAL TILT TO ROUTT

Schaefer Declares Commission Can't Cut State Budget

Chicago, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Chairman Walter V. Schaefer of the state's "Little Hoover Commission" says it's not right to expect that the commission will cut the state's budget by six or seven percent.

It would be "completely unrealistic to expect anything like a six to seven per cent reduction in the state budget, even if all administrative costs were eliminated," Schaefer said yesterday.

He addressed a city club meeting. Schaefer, a Northwestern University professor, heads the Illinois commission to study state government. The group, better known as the "Little Hoover commission," was set up during the last legislative session and given $50,000 to carry out its work for a report to the 1951 general assembly.

He said some people expect a six to seven per cent slash in the state budget because that amount of reduction has been estimated for the federal budget under a reorganization called for by the Herbert Hoover commission.

Schaefer declared large savings in the state budget could be effected only if functions of the state are cut and that his group has no authority to recommend such cuts.

The commission is "well past the organization stage" and is being aided by efficiency surveys of several state departments by other agencies, he said.

The commission has decided not to attempt recommendations on the curriculum and expenditures for higher education at the University of Illinois, Southern Illinois university and the Normal schools, the chairman added.

Washington, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Three color television systems were being set up today for new comparative showings before the Federal Communications Commission.

The demonstrations are scheduled at PCC's Laurel, Md., laboratories, between Washington and Baltimore, on Thursday. Competing in the test are Radio Corporation of America, Columbia Broadcasting System and Color Television, Inc. of San Francisco.

The San Francisco firm unveiled its system yesterday before FCC and an audience of congressmen and government officials.

Chairman Johnson (D-Col.) of the senate interstate commerce committee said: "It was good for a first demonstration."

CBS meanwhile, preparing to close out more than a month of public demonstrations, released the results of tabulating 9,423 returns to questionnaires passed out to viewers.

The tab, said Columbia, showed: Eighty-four per cent thought color "much more enjoyable than black-and-white," 13 per cent said "somewhat more enjoyable," 1 per cent "about the same," and 1 per cent gave no estimate.

MSM Conference

By Bob Duerer

Morrisonville has been put on the spot now, they must win their two conference games charted next week to tie the Nokomis for the title. Nokomis clinched its share of the crown last week by thumping Auburn 54-39 in their last conference game while the Mohawks kept in the running with a 57-33 win over Girard. Morrisonville's two remaining games include a home game with Waverly on Tuesday and a game at St. James on Friday, neither team should cause any trouble. Waverly has been skidding of late and although St. James is headed up, they are still far short of the Mohawks.

Four of the MSM teams are scheduled in next week's Farmersville district tournament. Diverson plays at Auburn in the top bracket while Pawnee bumps into Girard in the 18 lower.

Pawnee and the defending champion, Girard five are both a far cry from what they were last year; both teams did break even in last week's games. Girard (4-17) won over Auburn 43-36 but lost to Morrisonville 57-33 while Pawnee started off with a win over Virden 43-30 but was defeated by undefeated Riverton 66-46. Diverson owns a 11-12 record but had a rough time last week, losing to both Pleasant Plains and New Berlin, while Auburn has been only able to bump Mt. Auburn and Edinburg in 21 games this year.

Waverly tuning up for the Virginia regional, has two other games this week going to St. James on Monday and entertaining Athens on Friday. The Scotties ran into their first regional foe, New Berlin and they looked worse than they did in the Jacksonville tournament, stumbling out of a 38-36 overtime win.

Nokomis will travel to Moweaqua Tuesday night before they enter the Taylorville regional for their single game against Taylorville, the number one team there. They know what to expect since Pana, the number two team beat them 56-37 last week.

Virden travels to Lamphier for their finale this week while Northwestern murdered by Build 90-46 goes to White Hall on Tuesday and entertains Ball Township on Friday. Both Virden and Northwestern are in the Springfield regional.

East St. Louis, Ill., Feb. 21.—(AP)—Mrs. Mable Clark, 37, of East St. Louis was injured seriously yesterday in a grade crossing accident here.

Police reported her car was struck and dragged 550 feet by a freight train. The woman is in St. Mary's hospital suffering from head and internal injuries.

Washington, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Three color television systems were being set up today for new comparative showings before the Federal Communications Commission.

The demonstrations are scheduled at PCC's Laurel, Md., laboratories, between Washington and Baltimore, on Thursday. Competing in the test are Radio Corporation of America, Columbia Broadcasting System and Color Television, Inc. of San Francisco.

The San Francisco firm unveiled its system yesterday before FCC and an audience of congressmen and government officials.

Chairman Johnson (D-Col.) of the senate interstate commerce committee said: "It was good for a first demonstration."

CBS meanwhile, preparing to close out more than a month of public demonstrations, released the results of tabulating 9,423 returns to questionnaires passed out to viewers.

The tab, said Columbia, showed: Eighty-four per cent thought color "much more enjoyable than black-and-white," 13 per cent said "somewhat more enjoyable," 1 per cent "about the same," and 1 per cent gave no estimate.

Crimsons Trim Roodhouse 63-38 Here Tuesday

The Jacksonville high school Crimsons went on a scoring spree to trim the Roodhouse Railroaders 63-38 on the David Prince boards here last night. The Crimsons led the fray all the way.

It was Ike Wright and Jack Chapman who led the locals to the win with a total of 13 points each although the local scoring was fairly evenly distributed with Coach John Chapman's regulars. Copley led the visitors in the scoring column when he tied Wright's and Chapman's 13 point total.

The Crimsons reserves also copied an easy victory by a 54-39 count of the district tourney now underway and the ticket to the Virginia regional.

The game, the only one on tonight's card, will begin at 8 p.m.

Routt defeated Bluffs by a nine point margin Tuesday night. Spruce was functioning in good order, using his one-arm shot from out front to net eight baskets. He also collected seven free ones to collect a total of 23 points.

Edlen with 13 was the high jumper for the Scott county aggregation.

Routt was trailing by a lone mark when the first period ended, but they had a juicy second quarter to ring up a 12 point advantage. The Wrights rallied sharply in the final stanza, racking up 20 points while Routt was getting 16.

The Chambersburg tribe didn't have much trouble with Perry in the second game. That is, after the first quarter. Ham and Pool were on the warm side, good for 42 of the 62 points tallied by the victors.

Deaf Grade School Nips Waverly Five

Waverly—The I.S.D. grade schoolers had an easy time in downing the Waverly 52 to 14 last night. After the first quarter, I.S.D. threw in the bench and coasted along.

High scorer of the fray was Ramsey who tallied 26 points for the victors, 19 of these in the first canto. Woods was high for Waverly with 15.

I.S.D. also took the preliminary 19-14.

Churchill's Issue, Atomic Control; Attlee's, Domestic

London, Feb. 21.—(AP)—Conservative leader Winston Churchill claims his call for high-level talks with Russia on atomic control has blossomed into the outstanding campaign issue in the British elections Thursday.

But Prime Minister Clement Attlee continues to base his Labor party's appeal for re-election on domestic policy. He is standing on his record and asking the people for a new term to "get you along the rest of the road" to recovery.

Attlee mentioned briefly, however, his own party's international policy as "trying to build up not only in this country but in the world the kind of conditions that make for peace."

Scorning the views of his Labor party opponent that the subject of big power talks to end the cold war should not be raised at election time, the 75-year-old Churchill said yesterday in Manchester that the working classes should be called upon to vote on this as well as domestic issues.

He said his original appeal last week at Edinburgh for an attempt at reaching lasting East-West settlement had "not only dominated the election in Great Britain" but also had "rolled around the world and may have created a new situation which, whatever happens, cannot make things worse and may possibly bring us nearer to our heart's desire."

Attlee and his leading associates have not rejected outright the idea of such talks but have contended generally that the attempts to deal with Russia should continue through the United Nations.

Twice since the Edinburgh campaign speech Churchill has repeated his plea and pared back a Labor charge that it is just a political stunt and "soap box diplomacy."

Attlee, in bringing his campaign to its climax, has since sidestepped the issue to concentrate almost exclusively on domestic matters.

CONVICTION UPHELD

Denver, Feb. 21.—(AP)—The conviction and life sentence of David A. Downey for the 1947 strangulation slaying of his English wife, a bride was upheld by the Colorado supreme court yesterday in a 6-1 decision.

The former Air Force navigator from San Francisco was convicted in Oct. 1947, three months after the body of Mrs. Loly Lila Downey was found on a lonely mountain road north of Colorado Springs.

End of a Chapter

By Edwin Rutt Copyright 1950 by NEA SERVICE, INC.

XXVI

MURIEL HALLECK'S brows thin arched, lifted. "This isn't the first time you've taken a lot on yourself, Alice. My dear. With Rick and—Oh, it doesn't matter. But as for having to, I didn't. I simply saw no reason why I shouldn't. Brent is a very interesting personality. I thought so when I married him."

"But to—crucify him in a novel?"

Muriel slapped the table. "Oh, bosh! That's stupid and melodramatic. You'd think I was vivisectioning Brent Halleck in Grand Central Station. Look here! Thousands of people will read the book. But only a handful could even vaguely suspect that I might have had Brent in mind."

"But Brent himself will be terribly hurt. And Chuck Wisner and Molly Tremayne..."

Muriel held up a hand. "Please! Let's not enumerate the local nonentities." She waited a second, then nodded. "Yes, it's time I told you. I hadn't meant to, just yet. But you're forcing me. You may as well know, Alice, that I'm finished with all this around here."

"I do know," Alice said slowly. "You're stopping off at Reno on your way to California."

"Why, yes," Muriel smiled. "But it's interesting that you're so well informed already. Still, Brent would have talked to Chuck. Damon has no secrets from Pythias. And Chuck, having nothing better to do, gossips like an old woman."

"He didn't exactly gossip. He..."

"Oh, Muriel, why are you doing it? Divorcing him, I mean?"

"Good heavens, you're why-ing me to death. But if you must know, I've been out of love with Brent for a long time. Years, even. I—bypassed him ages ago. And now he's a definite drag."

"A drag?" Alice repeated the words in the form of a question.

"Yes, a drag," Muriel's eyes narrowed into bright slits. "And I can't afford drags and excess baggage. I've got things to do and I intend to be free to do them, whenever and wherever I see fit. I don't want to be chained to a neck of land in a dull part of New England with a husband who can't make the grade in his profession. And with a child that isn't even my own. It's the end of a chapter. Do you see, Alice? Just like in a book—the end of a chapter!"

THE hard, measured words struck Alice like a succession of blows. She felt herself step back involuntarily. Then she spoke:

"I'm not going with you to California, Muriel." The calmness of her words surprised even Alice herself.

Muriel shrugged. "Suit yourself. I'm sorry, though. You're a good secretary, Alice, but in your—er—present condition it wouldn't make sense, would it?"

"My present—"

Alice suddenly checked herself. She was confusedly conscious that Muriel was inwardly laughing at her. Now Muriel visibly smiled.

"Don't look so stunned, Alice, darling. I know darn well that you've fallen, at least halfway, for Brent. And who am I to blame you for considering that I too fell for him once? I did think, though, that it was just propriety and that getting away from him for awhile would straighten you out. But now I see that you're beginning to carry a torch."

Somehow Alice brushed aside Muriel's words and managed to meet the woman's cool, smiling eyes. "And you—you don't care?"

"Good grief!" Muriel exclaimed, almost testily. "Would I be likely to talk this way if I really cared?"

Israel Boosts Fishing Fleet

Haifa.—(P)—A new fishing vessel built in Denmark is being used for research and experimental purposes here.

Only 17 per cent of Israel's fish food needs presently are supplied by local fishing units. More than $5,000,000 are spent annually for imported fish. Israel presently has 18 fishing vessels compared with one at the end of World War II. It is planned to boost the fishing fleet operating from Israeli ports to 75 within the next four years.
